Resignation of the outgoing government and nomination of an informateur<sup>1</sup>

15 October 2018

On 15 October, the day following the legislative elections of 14 October 2018, the members of the outgoing government gathered for a final meeting of the Government Council.

After this session, the Prime Minister Xavier Bettel was welcomed in a hearing at the grand-ducal palace by HRH the Grand Duke. As is customary on the day following the legislative elections, the Prime Minister presented the resignation of the outgoing government to the head of state. HRH the Grand Duke asked the government to remain in office until a new government was formed, and assigned it the task of continuing to oversee any current affairs.

After the hearing with the Prime Minister Xavier Bettel, HRH the Grand Duke successively welcomed Mars Di Bartolomeo, President of the Chamber of Deputies; Georges Wivenes, President of the Council of State; as well as the leaders of the political parties who presented a list in the four electoral constituencies, in a consultation hearing.

After these hearings, HRH the Grand Duke appointed Martine Solovieff, State Public Prosecutor, as informateur for the formation of the new government.

Appointment of a formateur<sup>2</sup>

16 October 2018

On 16 October, Martine Solovieff reported to HRH the Grand Duke on her interviews with the representatives of the main political parties. The Democratic Party (DP), the Luxembourg Socialist Workers' Party (LSAP) and the Greens (déi gréng) expressed their wish to begin negotiations in order to form a coalition.

Following these conclusions, HRH the Grand Duke invited Xavier Bettel to a hearing and appointed him formateur.

Opening of coalition negotiations

17 October 2018

On 17 October, the LSAP, DP and déi gréng delegations gathered to initiate the coalition negotiations under the presidency of the formateur Xavier Bettel. The first plenary meeting of the coalition negotiations was held on 17 October at the Hôtel des Terres rouges.

On this occasion, the delegation leaders confirmed that they had received the unanimous mandate of the governing bodies of their respective parties to enter these negotiations with the aim of forming the next government.

The first plenary meeting was essentially dedicated to setting the organisational framework of the negotiations. The negotiators agreed on the formation of 11 working groups:

- public finances, tax system, development of the financial centre (as well as international implications and Brexit);
- economy, employment, competitiveness, tourism, energy;
- social, family, health, equal opportunities;
- education, sport, youth, higher education and research, culture;

PIERRE GRAMEGNA

► MINISTER OF FINANCE

Pierre Gramegna was born on 22 April 1958 in Esch-sur-Alzette.

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS

Following his secondary school studies in Esch-sur-Alzette (classical mathematics section) Pierre Gramegna pursued studies in law and economics at the Université Panthéon-Assas (Paris II), where he was awarded a master's degree in civil law in 1981 and a degree in economic sciences in 1982. He completed his post-university education with a DEA (postgraduate diploma of advanced studies) in European Union law. He was awarded the title of doctor honoris causa from the Sacred Heart University of Luxembourg.

GOVERNMENTAL POSTS

Following the legislative elections of 14 October 2018, Pierre Gramegna was re-appointed Minister of Finance on 5 December 2018 in the coalition government formed by the Democratic Party (DP), the Luxembourg Socialist Workers' Party (LSAP) and the Green Party (déi gréng).

Pierre Gramegna had first joined the government as Minister of Finance on 4 December 2013, after the legislative elections of 20 October 2013.

As Minister of Finance, Pierre Gramegna has initiated major reforms to balance the budget and to align Luxembourg's tax rules with international transparency standards. Thanks to these efforts, Luxembourg's AAA rating has been consistently confirmed by all major rating agencies and, in 2015, the Global Forum on Transparency and Exchange of Information for Tax Purposes upgraded Luxembourg to "largely compliant". Furthermore, in 2014, Pierre Gramegna established Luxembourg's sovereign fund for the benefit of future generations.

Pierre Gramegna is also a promoter of the diversification of Luxembourg's financial centre, in particular with regard to FinTech and sustainable finance. He is the initiator and president of the LHoFT Foundation, which runs the Luxembourg House of Financial Technology. He has also further developed bilateral relations with China in the financial sector and since he took office, four additional Chinese banks have chosen Luxembourg as their EU hub.

As chair of the Economic and Financial Affairs Council of the European Union during the Luxembourg Presidency (second half of 2015), Pierre Gramegna actively contributed to reaching landmark agreements on the introduction of the automatic exchange of information on tax rulings with EU member states, as well as on securitisation.

Pierre Gramegna puts particular emphasis on Luxembourg's role in multilateral development banks. In 2014, Luxembourg became a member of the African Development Bank and, in 2015, Luxembourg was the first non-Asian country to join the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank. In May 2016, Pierre Gramegna was elected chair of the Board of Governors of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development for a one-year mandate. He currently serves on the Board of Governors of the European Investment Bank and on that of the European Stability Mechanism. He is also Luxembourg's governor to the International Monetary Fund, the World Bank and the Asian Development Bank.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

As a career diplomat, Pierre Gramegna joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 1983. He was subsequently appointed Political and Economic Affairs Advisor to the Luxembourg embassy in Paris in 1988, an office he held for four years before being appointed Consul General and Director of the Board of Economic Development in San Francisco.

From 1996 to 2002, Pierre Gramegna was Luxembourg's ambassador to Japan and South Korea. He was subsequently responsible for the Directorate of International Economic Relations at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

In 2003, Pierre Gramegna took on the position of Director General of the Chamber of Commerce, an office he held until his appointment to the government in December 2013.

Prior to joining the government, Pierre Gramegna was also a member of the executive board of several companies, including Cargolux Airlines International SA (as chairman from 2004 to 2008), the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (Bourse de Luxembourg), LuxExpo Luxembourg and BGL BNP Paribas Luxembourg SA. He has also been a member of numerous advisory committees, such as the Advisory Committee on Foreign Trade (Comité consultatif du commerce extérieur), the Economic Development Committee (Comité de développement économique) and the National Committee for the Promotion of Entrepreneurship (Comité national pour la promotion de l'esprit d'entreprise).
